

Forest VanDyke

Forest VanDyke is an actor and singer from Austin, Texas. His career began as a member, and soloist for The American Boychoir for two years where he toured Germany debuting a new operetta, and record. This was later followed by a performance at Carnegie Hall. Most recently, he performed in the West Coast premiere of Tarell Alvin McCraney's "Choirboy" and new musicals "The Waterman" at Ars Nova and "Bread and Roses" at Playwrights Horizons. Some of his other favorite productions include "21" (Dir. Jerry Dixon), "Crush" (Comp. -Stew and Heidi Rodewald), and "Pericles", "Julius Caesar", and "The Comedy of Errors" at the Illinois Shakespeare Festival. As well as many others. Forest is beyond excited and to be among those other great artists and be able to perform for these great students!
