

Jesse Han

Jessica Han is a New York City based Flutist. She is a member the Gil Evans Project and a substitute musician at the New York Philharmonic, Wicked, The Lion King, the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra, Princeton Symphony Orchestra and the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra. She has also performed with Opéra National de Lorraine/Orchestre Symphonique et Lyrique de Nancy et de Lorraine, the Mariinsky Orchestra and the Mark Morris Dance Group.

She has performed on the Grammy winning album, Centennial, Grammy nominated album, Lines of Color, and David Bowie's recent Grammy winning release, Sue (Or in a Season of Crime).

Ms. Han received her BM and MM in flute performance from the Juilliard School and a BA in French Literature from Columbia University