

Mike Evariste

Mike has been in the entertainment business for the past decade serving as an entertainer and producer. As a performer he was last seen on Broadway in Amazing Grace. Other Broadway credits are the Broadway Revivals of Tony Award winning South Pacific produced by Lincoln Center Theatre, Les Miserables, and Hair. He has performed across the country with the National Touring Companies of The Book of Mormon, South Pacific, Hair, Smokey Joe's Cafe, Fame and Rent. NY Workshops/Readings: Upcoming Broadway-bound Once On This Island, Bull Durham: The Musical written by Ron Shelton, Untitled Elton John Musical, and Motown the Musical.

Mike is a Tony Nominated Producer on the Tony Nominated and 2013 Pulitzer Prize winning Broadway play Disgraced. For television Mike was the Creator and Executive Producer of "Arsenic 9", a non-scripted pilot created for The Sundance Channel in association with Big Fish Entertainment. His film producing credits are Pass the Light and upcoming Construction. A graduate of The Juilliard School's Music Advancement Program and a Bachelor of Music in Music Theatre from Florida State University, Mike continues to bridge the gap between business and entertainment.